Movement Started to Promote "Americanization" in a National Sense.

COMMITTEE IS FORMED TO BOOST PATRIOTISM

Objects of Organization Outlined by Dr. P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education.

"Americanization day" in a national organization, with Frank Trumbull of New York city at the head of a committee of men and women who are known around the world. "Americaniation day" is to be used to drive home the importance of assimilating the for igners within our shores, to provide asier access for the immigrant to the chools, so that the millions of foreignpe able to learn English, "the master ney to American opportunity."

The idea is concisely expressed by P r. Claxton, commissioner of education, in a recent communication to 25,000 chool superintendents.

"Over fifty mayors of our largest nies have appointed mayors' committees as part of the national movement to make the Fourth of July, 1915. Americanization day.'

"Americanization day is a patriotic call to all citizens, American-born and foreign-born alike, adults and children, to rally to American ideals, purposes and common interests of many people

SIX YEARS IN PRISON, GEN. DE WET SENTENCE

Leader of South African Rebellion Also Must Pay Fine of $10,000.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Union of South Africa, June 22.- A sentence of six years' imprisonment and a fine of £2,000 ($10,000) was imposed today on Gen. Christian de Wet, one of the leaders of the South African rebellion against the British government, who was found guilty yesterday of treason on eight counts.

Gen. de Wet headed a rebellion in the Orange Free State and western Transvaal in October, 1914. He was captured on a farm at Waterburg, British Bu-chuanaland, to which place he had been pursued by a motor car brigade. Gen. de Wet was placed on trial June 10 on de Wet was placed on trial June 10 on a charge of high treason. The indictment against him was a long one, and covered alleged rebellious acts and seditious utterances. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of high treason, but guilty to a charge of sedition. Gen. de Wet was commander-in-chief of the Free State forces during the Boer war. He was minister for agriculture in the Orange river colony for several years.

Belligerent nations have made, to late, war loans totaling more than 19,000,000,000.
